

Auto-Kabel Company Policy

- Quality, Environmental, Energy, Occupational Safety & Health and Sustainability -

By applying comprehensive quality responsibility to our products and environmentally conscious, energy efficient and employee friendly production processes we are convincing peoples standing by us. By doing this we determine the course for a successful future.

Our Customers

are excited about our excellent quality and capability for innovation. They get products according to their expectations.

Our Suppliers

are reliable. They apply the highest quality standards to their own performance as a precondition for a successful cooperation.

Our Employees

are highly motivated and competent. We appreciate their work, protect their health and care about their safety, develop and support their abilities in order to ensure our success and the success of our customers.

Our Shareholders

are convinced of our steady economic success and growth and invest in our future.

Our Environment

The sustainable protection of our environment, acting responsibly with natural Resources and the environmental and energy related performance, including continual improvement of them, are determining all our activities.

Our Society.

We are committed to comply with all legal regulations and obligatory liabilities and are aware of our social responsibility. Respect for all men and women and equal treatment for all peoples independent from their origins and gender are our common sense.

In order to ensure all these facts along all phases of the product life cycle, we are maintain a process oriented Management System, across all locations worldwide. By applying continuous improvement, we are ensure the permanent adjustment of our Management System adequate to steady growing and changing requirements and general conditions.

May 1st, 2021, Board of Directors

